

Looking for a great REALTOR®? Choose a Certified Residential Specialist® (CRS).

A CRS is a REALTOR® who has earned certification from the Council of Residential Specialists by completing advanced training and by meeting significant experience requirements.

Working with a CRS will make a real difference in the purchase or sale of your home, since they have been trained to help save you time and money.

CRSs have the professional experience and advanced training to ensure successful, worry-free real estate transactions.

Experience

Certified Residential Specialists are REALTORS® that have completed a significant number of real estate transactions and have met requirements for advanced training and education. That means that CRSs are experienced professionals who have a proven track record of successful sales and transactions.

Ethics

As REALTORS®, CRSs abide by a strict Code of Ethics and maintain membership within the National Association of REALTORS®.

Negotiation skills

As a home buyer or a seller, you face many risks along the way—financial risks, legal risks, even the risk that a home purchase will fall through. A CRS is trained to minimize those risks and negotiate on your behalf to give you peace of mind throughout your transaction.
